DEATHS

ELIZABETH IONE ELSEA nee Mikels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Mikels, of near Salt Springs was born in Council Grove, Kas., Dec. 25, 1885, and came with her parents to Salt Springs at the age of 8 years. She attended high school in Marshall and was a graduate of the class of 1904. She later attended M. V. C. and after her marriage to her sorrowing husband E. N. Elsea on June 22, 1910, accompanied him to the State University and studied German.

She and her husband who is principal of the Kennett, Mo., high school moved to that place a little more than a year ago. Mrs. Elsea at once joined the M. E. Church South, there and took up active church work as a teacher in the Sunday School and soon after as secretary of the Home Mission Society.

As the result of child-birth, she died on Wednesday night, Nov. 15, the child dying also. Thus closed the life of one of our most beloved young ladies, a happy home is made desolate, and her family and friends are grief stricken and cannot understand why this should be so. But her life was not in vain and some day they shall understand.

In anticipation of the birth, her mother had gone to Kennett six weeks ago and was with her during this time, which was a great comfort to both. Mrs. Mikels says that never has she seen such kindness and sympathy shown as manifested by the good people of Kennett. The teachers in the high school accompanied the remains as far as Cape Girardeau and sent flowers. Her pastor, Rev. J. W. Velvick, accompanied the remains to Marshall and paid a last loving tribute at the funeral.

A large number assembled at the M. E. Church, South, Friday afternoon where the funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. R. Faris assisted by Elder B. T. Wharton and Rev. Velvick. Three of Mrs. Elsea's favorite hymns were sung by the choir. There were a great many floral offerings. The pall bearers were Leonard VanDyke, Will Winslow, Robt. and Warner Maupin, Chas. Chrisman and J. D. Fristoe, Jr. After the services the remains were laid to rest in Ridge Park cemetery.

MISS JOAN C. ORR—The death of Miss Orr at the home of her brother, Judge Isaac H. Orr, of St. Louis, Thursday morning, Nov. 16 brought sadness to many of her Marshall friends and acquaintances as well as throughout the state. Miss Orr was found dead in bed early that morning, not having been ill. Her death is supposed to have resulted from a cerebral hemorrhage.

Miss Orr was a teacher at M. V. C. for fourteen years, where she not only did faithful and effective duty but was also held in high esteem. Besides this she taught about 16 years in other schools and colleges, making an enviable record.

The remains were brought to her old home in Vandalia and were laid to rest Saturday at 2.30 p. m. after services conducted by Dr. W. H. Black.

MRS. HENRY HUSTON died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. B. Morris, of Arrow Rock, Sunday at the age of 77 years, after a long illness. She had been married to the surviving husband 55 years. A brother, Ed Wood, died at his home in Ocean Park, California, two days before Mrs. Huston. She is survived by their only child at ready mentioned, a sister, Mrs. Minor of Arkansas, and two brothers, Joe Wood, Nelson; and John Wood of Arizona.

She was born southeast of Marshall and was one of our pioneer citizens and was a good woman whose long life was well spent.

Funeral services were conducted at the Morris home Monday by Rev. Houston and burial at Arrow Rock.

HENRIETTA WILLIAMS, col., died in Kansas City Nov. 15th, of mitral insufficiency, at the age of 38 years. Her remains were brought to the home of her brother, John Williams, Friday evening and services held at the Free Will Baptist church Saturday after which the remains were laid to rest in Fairview cemetery.

ISAAC TINDELL, col., died at the county farm Sunday evening of valvular disease of the heart, aged about 83 years. He was an old and respected citizen of Arrow Rock and had a good record. His wife died at the county home also about a year ago.

His remains were sent back Tuesday morning to Arrow Rock for burial.

Big Record Broken by Monday's Mail

Monday's letter mail was the biggest ever received in one day by the Republican due largely to our big offer of last week. The mail had subscription renewals, orders for type, etc., running into hundreds of dollars. But we were glad to get it and look for an increase before the offer closes. Those who have received their spoons are delighted with them and several have inquired if we can really give what we do without losing money. Of course that's our own lookout but we will say to our friends and patrons that we can afford to do this for the reason that the Missouri Ruralist is footing most of the bill and also that it causes us a great saving as it costs nearly half the subscription price to collect our renewals or subscription and we are therefore willing to make a concession to those who "come across" with their renewal without any special effort on our part.

As our advertisers have crowded out our big adv. this week we will say that our offer, which is good to and including Saturday, Dec. 2d, is this:

One year's subscription to the Marshall Republican, one year's subscription to the great weekly, Missouri Ruralist, the largest agricultural and live stock paper in the world, a set of six Rogers Narcissus silver teaspoons, fully guaranteed for ten years; 12 highly embossed Thanksgiving and Christmas post cards, all for the unheard-of price of $1.00, the regular subscription price of the Republican.

Now we ask all who are in arrears to please take advantage of this proposition and those who are paid up are at perfect liberty to pay ahead.

We have had the spoons examined by a local jeweler and he declares them to be a good article and our offer an unusual one. The Republican is too well known to add comments. The Ruralist is also well known to most of our readers as Missouri's best farm paper. The cards are also the best on the market. No commissions paid agents during this offer.

Among the Sick

Mrs. Lizzie Dawson has been very sick at the home of L. V. Caldwell east of town and is improving.

Mrs. Nancy Davis of Hardeman is reported critically ill.

Charlie Johnston is able to be up again.

Mrs. Chas. Petry was up town Tuesday in a buggy. She is improving from her accident but unable so far to get around without crutches.

W. F. Patterson one of our groccymen, is on the sick list.

Dr. G. C. Emerson informs us that he has J. W. Barnhill on the road to complete recovery. Mr. Barnhill was able to attend church last Sunday, something very unusual.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher, the Chautauqua lecturer who made one of the best talks on our program last summer, will be here on Jan. 18th, to deliver a lecture.

Irvine-Ross

Ollie M. Irvine, of this city, and Miss Hallie Ross, of near Miami, were united in marriage by Rev. A. R. Faris on Wednesday, Nov. 15th, at the home of Mrs. Annie Rankin, of East Porter.

Although the groom is afflicted with blindness he has built up a nice business as a broom manufacturer. The bride is one of the county's most excellent ladies and has considerable means. They both represent old families and have many friends to wish them happiness in their new state.
